"Smart Device" Disclosure/Information

The following disclosure/information form is provided to help both sellers and buyers prepare for the transition in ownership of a property with "smart devices" connected to the internet ("connected devices"). Real Estate Licensees are not experts in these technologies and make no representations as to the condition, fitness, or merchantability of any connected devices.

A smart home device allows homeowners to control appliances, thermostats, lights, and other devices remotely through an internet connection.

For the Buyer

Once you have taken possession of your new property, please review the following checklist to help maximize your security and protect your privacy:

- Obtain confirmation from Seller(s) and vendors that Seller(s) no longer have administrative or user access to any connected device that is Included with the sale.
- Submit change of ownership and contact information to device manufacturers and service providers to ensure you receive security updates and manufacturer notifications.
- Update and modify all system passwords and usernames upon taking possession of your new property.
- Review devices' warranty and technical support policies. Consider disabling/ replacing devices no longer supported by the vendor.
- Review the configuration, privacy and data sharing settings for all devices and modify to your preferences.
- Run updates and contact manufacturers to confirm devices are patched with the latest software and firmware.
- Reset access and guest codes for home security systems, gates and garage door openers.
- Reset access codes for all other connected devices.
